BATS OF CALIFORNIA<sup>1</sup>

Order Chiroptera

Family PHYLLOSTOMIDAE (Leaf-nosed bats)

Macrotus californicus*California leaf-nosed batChoeronycteris mexicana*Mexican long-tongued batLeptonycteris curasoae yerbabuenae**Lesser long-nosed bat

Family VESPERTILIONIDAE (Plain-nosed or mouse-eared bats)

Myotis lucifugusLittle brown myotisMyotis occultus*Arizona myotisMyotis yumanensisYuma myotisMyotis velifer*Cave myotisMyotis evotisLong-eared myotis

Myotis evotisLong-eared myotisMyotis thysanodes***Fringed myotisMyotis volans***Long-legged myotisMyotis californicusCalifornia myotis

Myotis ciliolabrum Western small-footed myotis

Lasionycteris noctivagansSilver haired batPipistrellus hesperusWestern pipistrelleEptesicus fuscusBig brown batLasiurus blossevillii***Western red batLasiurus cinereusHoary bat

Euderma maculatum* Spotted bat

Corynorhinus (=Plecotus) townsendii* Townsend's big-eared bat Antrozous pallidus* Pallid bat

Family MOLOSSIDAE (Free-tailed bats)

Tadarida brasiliensisMexican free-tailed batNyctinomops femorosaccus*Pocketed free-tailed batNyctinomops macrotis*Big free-tailed batEumops perotis*Western mastiff bat

* California Department of Fish and Game (CDFG) Species of Special Concern

<sup>**</sup> Range extension reported by D.G. Constantine (1998) in California Bull. So. Calif. Academy Sciences 97:49-75; federally listed as endangered in 1988 (Federal Register 53:38456-38460)

<sup>***</sup>Included on CDFG's (preliminary) revised list of Mammal Species of Special Concern (in prep.)

&lt;sup>1</sup>SOURCE: CDFG Bird and Mammal Conservation Program (updated 11/96). Species shown in bold are California-BLM Sensitive Species.